

that by the From Publishing Comp

FRIDAY, AUGUST 9, 1895. SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

Vel. 86 No. 12,407 eign missions in China.

red at the Post-Office at New York as second-class matter. ELD UPTOWN OFFICE-Justice of Bree and Sixth ave. at 154 st. D HARLEM OFFICE-18th st. and Madi-554,178 in JULY.

THE EXCHENDS the COMBINED

CHMOULATION of ten New York and the Committee of the Monogon of the Monogon of the Monogon of the Highard, the Talley and the July, 1896 - 884,178 per day July, 1894 - 800,706 per day

July, 1888 - $7,469 per day

Gats in one year ____ 58,478 Gain in four years.......218,138

1891 - 861,040 per day of "THE EVENTING WORLD

medial them reputarly. Address

m and how "THE EVENTOR

the other for the had married about a married

WHERE DOES THE GUILT REST!

reat portion of the centre of the struc

FOR HOME LABOR

Police Commissioner Grant is Chair-labor. This he will prevent if he can.

After all the American missions in try will probably order an investigation.

Meanwhile Admiral Carpenter has eight war vessels on the China station, but

WOTHING BUT TALK.

"It's of no consequence," the amiable slaugher of Christians.

Mr. Toots used to say.

practically murder.

ing has been done to stop the 554,178

PER DAY.

THE WORLD'S

CIRCULATION

IN JULY WAS

CIRCULATION FOR

is infamous."-Special cable despatch to "The World." A cry reaches Bishop Galloway, of the Southern M. E. Church, from Shanghal: met st. WASHINGTON-765 14th st.

"Horrible massacre. More danger, Move Washington." Miss Mabel C. Hartford, the American wounded and beaten at Hwasang, in the massacre, sends a statement over her own name to "The World." She cries for help.

The Secretary of State is off junketnothing will be done about it, as usu in New Hampshire as in New York.

IS EVERYBODY FISHINGS

street and West Broadway.

where terror prevails.

The Acting Secretary, Adea, was busy yesterday at Washington receiving the Count de la Boissere, Grand Chancellor of the Principality of Trinidad, South Atlantic Ocean.

"A mob has just looted the America Mission Chapel at Inghok. No Americas gunboat has come. The situation is critical."-Special cable to "The World" from Foe Chow.

Secretary of the Navy Herbert is en joying the gayeties of Newport.

"The Vegetarians publicly declare their intention to destroy the churches and kill the Christians."-Special cable to "The World" from Foo Chew. Have we a Government?

Is everybody fishing?

Ex-Mayor Grant's plan for the re-rganization of Tammany has failed. The trouble seems to be that nobody in the Wigwam knows exactly what is wanted.

SPOILING THEIR FUN.

A large number of political clubs or organisations exist in this city of a personal character. They do not do much good, and, as a rule, they do not do much, if any, harm. They are local af-fairs, and are designed to gratify the fairs, and are designed to gratify the Tork papers. They are not in the same pride and help the political aspirations York of the men whose name they bear, and class. who are generally ambitious to fill the positions of Alderman or Assemblyman. With each the red-letter day of the year What was it that caused the large is the date of the annual chowder party new building in course of erection and or target excursion or picnic, in which rly finished on West Broadway and they take so much delight and at which Third street, to collapse suddenly, withthey do so much dancing and drink so out the slightest warning, carrying a much lemonade.

ture to the ground floor and burying a harmless, although noisy. Now and then seore of workmen? and massive building fell like a has to lotter out in the stream until sigexcursionists, and occasionally a barge ouse built of cards, killing a number house built of cards, killing a number nailing has drawn a protecting force to smoot for a single dinner in Paris. Uncle John of laborers, severely and painfully inthe landing place. But as a rule the had better give up politics and study family juring many who escaped with their police have been able with a little tact lives, and bringing misery and sufferto handle the holiday-makers easily, ing into the families of all the victims? and but little serious trouble has arisen There must have been some cause.

The art of building safely is not a diffiof the Joseph Welling Association last sult one. The laws regulating construc-Wednesday. The parade through the tion are carefully framed. There must fault somewhere in calamities like thing but orderly. There were several this, and somebody must be to blame. fights with the police, ambulances rolled was it the reckless carelessness of piloff with the wounded as on a battlefield, ing up sacks of plaster on the floors? and the hospitals and police courts were postruction of the ironwork? Was it the old evil of bad mor-

These questions ought to be answered. It shall not be the fault of 'The Eventhe occasion, and yesterday got together of success.—Boston Globs.

and determined to stop all such affairs perseverance that sent Buddensiek to chowder party, target excursion or pic-biate prison years ago will not be lacking to compel a very thorough scrusevere blow to the politicians who have but will just step into the Advisory Committee tiny of all the facts connected with used their money to build up personal What, has the ex-Mayor been tamed so quickly? this new tragedy. If "The Evening clubs. But is it necessary? Why spoil can prevent it, no contractors their fun? Why not let the people have in this city shall ever again risk the some little freedom and enjoyment? wholesale slaughter of innocent work- Why cannot the reformed police use as men in order to increase their profit on much judgment in such matters as was job, without being made to pay the exercised by the unreformed police? Besides, have the police the right inder the law to arbitrarily refuse per mits? Mr. Roosevelt, who is for the Two violinists were landed at Ellis Islstrictest enforcement of all laws, would but we ean't throw in a doctor and funeral exand yesterday. They were requested do well to refer to the statute govern- penses -- Atlanta Constitution. to show their skill, and played "Daisy ing such permits. Bell." Instead of being returned to their native country they were allowed to land. They are now at large, and the It has been demonstrated that Delmour's Steering Committee is in con-trol of Tammany Hall. It will need a official who let them in has not lost his careful pilot to keep away from political

> Emperor William has not raced his yacht yet this season in English waters ness somewhere and an example should be made of the men to blame. so far as the contracts over which he has control are concerned. The New Job Hedges, by mistake, signed a document removing himself from office. If York working people will approve the he has a blank to spare he might send it to Coroner Hoeber,

> There is a vacancy on the Supreme Bench. Now let Mr. Cleveland show by his appointment whether he is for cr against the trusts.

When it comes to getting news "The World" has to give a big time allow- And, furthermore, young Andrews asserted. ance to the other newspapers published hereabouts.

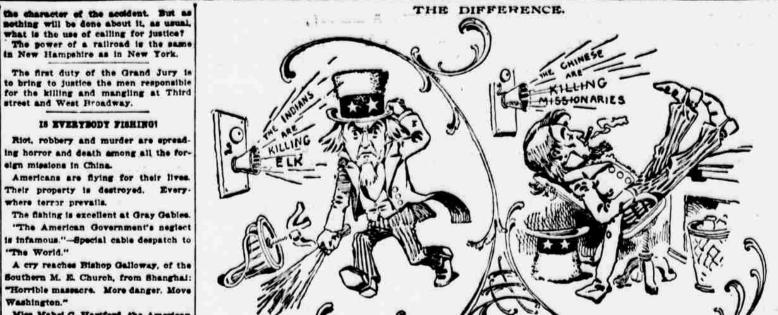

By the time the Speedway is built it will probably be changed into a cycle Maine Railroad yesterday through a path.

To McKinley, Harrison, Reed et al. Mountain express and a freight train, by It is now entirely safe to denounce free which four trainmen were killed, was silver. It is dead. Come off the fence. The two trains met with a fearful The blood of the dead and injured in crash while rounding a curve. The ex- the West Broadway death-trap cries press was running at the rate of forty out for immediate vengeance.

miles an hour on a down grade. ne for the collision is laid on Con- It is the expected now whenever an ductor Lesile Tyler of the freight. He event of world-wide importance happens of have been looking to see if anybody has discovered my views on the silver question. That's day.

There can be no doubt therefore of York, to give the first news to Bondon where I keep them."

Uncle Sam's Indians Keep Him Awake, but the Chinese Murderers Don't Worry Him.

His Other Girl Flirted.

and good intentions in looking for a nice girl. I

Where Can He See Hert

and just eighteen. I would advise Eleanora to

TALKS WITH THE DOCTOR.

Advice About Ailments That May Be

Safely Treated at Home.

sort of muddy and yellow, and am getting thinner all the time. Kindly tell me what to do to clear of tincture of nux vomica, one ounce of tincture of colombo and enough commy complexion and give me a better appetite.

to the Editor:

FRED, Brooklyn, N. Y.

an twenty-one years old, considered nice-le

"The Evening World's" Gallery of Living Pictures.

FATHER ZURCHER This is the picture of a delegate to the Catholic Total Abstinence Convention, who represents Buffalo and thinks that city needs a lot of Roosevelting.

Are things shaping themselves in Tam many for Purroy? EDITORIAL COMMENTS.

But There Are Many of 'Em. Only the meanest kind of an office boy will put where the office cat daily takes her sustomary nan-Boston Globe. Politics Begin at Home. Reset John Wanamaker's twenty-pear-old son hold a good position and am well able to take 190.000 for a single dinner in Paria. Uncle John had better give up politics and study family fond of firting, so we gave each other up a few months ago, and I have not "kept company" with a sheet of sticky fireaper in the seat of the chair

Too Much of a Good Thing.

While the dangers of bicycling are being dis be borne in mind that there are few dangers in bicycling itself. The exercise is healthful and that "Eleanora" wanted a nice young man to invigorating. It is only the recklessness, care replace the one she lost. I would not invigorating the statement of the riders which suit her. I suppose the only way to find out is lessness or injudiciousness of the riders which ault her. I suppose the only way to find out is is dangerous or fatal.—Philadelphia Inquirer. for her to see me and judge for herself, but where

How About Itt Ex-Mayor Hugh J. Grant has returned from his unfitness to contest honors with Valkyrie III Possibly the syndicate is bearing the market an picking up bets in London.—Chicago Post.

Must Draw the Line. offer six watermelans for one anharriber

And Croker Smiles. The Khedive of Egypt has gone to Constanti nople to visit his Surerain the Sultan, and to present him with a gift of $2.500,000. And the question that is now puzzling Europe is where did he get it?-Philadelphia Inquirer OH! OH: COMMISSIONER AN. pound tincture of gentlan to make four in tights And guiping down a glass of framing beer.

DREWS.

While Roosevelt was receiving the testotalers' And Parker's eyes with happiness did shins.
Two girls in coastly clothing young Andrews elessis areant. And tried to bide his blushes to a stein

When Rossevelt heard about it, he thought his heart would burst,

And Parker was so murithed he cried;

And had drunk that beer with pretzels on the

That they fear the Board at last will have to epitt. N. A. JENNINGS. A Prudent Man.

(From an Exchange) It was the wife who spoke.

"You won't betray me. Elizabeth" I esciaimed drams of spirit of rosemary, one-half the prominent politician, pale and agitated. ounce of glycerine and four ounces of "Hetray you? Certainly not. What have you been doing in the garret" "Elizabeth," he replied in a hoarse whisper, "I have been looking to see if anybody has dis-

Shampoo your scalp with green soap and tepid water once or twice a week and apply a lotion composed of on

G. V. D .-- Une pure cod-liver oil several times a

In answer to "Menore" I must may I am pretty nearly in the same shoos, and think we can agree better than ahe and that other young man. I am recipient of a very fair miary, and would like to meet a young lady of her description.

Address FRED, East Eleventh street. I am very much attracted by "Eleanora's" great agnostic. His head to not quite as round letter and wish it were possible to meet the as the anti-theologist's, but his features are expoung lady and convince her of my respectability act counterparts.

The Teacher-Now, who can tell me which travels the faster, heat or cold?

Johnnie Bright (promptly)-Heat, of course.

Doctor-Excuse me, which of you gentlemen has been waiting the longest? bridal tour. He says he don't want to be Boss give the other fellow a chance to make up, for but will just step into the Advisory Committee wery likely he's erry for falling out with her wery alone you ordered a suit of clothes and got What, has the ex-Mayor been tamed so quickly?— But if she prefers to try and forget him I will it, and you haven't paid me yet.—Topeka Capital.

do my best to help her out if she will write to me.

N. B.—I sm a city boy, but spending the Summer here. The Change. Banks-I thought she needed sympathy and so married her Banks-And we have now changed places.

As Seen by the South. I am a young man twenty-one years of age and have a very poor appetite. My complexion is

It is told of a gentleman in Washington, who has for many years made a practice of gathering personal anecdotes of veterans of the war, both of the Northern and Southern service, that he once asked a friend who had fought all through tively knew of tively knew gr.
"Yes." said he remormsfully, "one. At Bull Run I ran at the first fire. A Confederate chased me for teo miles and was then so exhausted that he dropped dead."—New Orleans Pleagues.

A Momentous Question Settled. Jaglet-Do you think prohibition is declining.

Once round a slender steeple fluttered that airy.

There were the singing seats, where my darling rose to sing-Your ears, O, happy people, that heard her, heard angels too!

Hither I came through the clover while the bell tolled over the wood, The wood where we two had lingured in purple shadow and hush Hearing a bird's song tolling the sorrow of soll-And she sang the awest song over-ewester sh

When we all turned us duly, as the old hymn left her lips. in my place, Worshiping her, and her only-that petal the her face? Strange and sweet are your flashes. O Summe

In what far land do you treasure the thrills you stale from me?

"Trilby" Performers Show Signs of Fatigue.

him Awake, but the Chinese Murderers Don't Worry Him.

LELEANORA'S LOST YOUNG MAN.

Several Levely Gentlemen Willing to Take His Place.

Gensip Here, a Hist There and Twenting, and this acting in the substitution of the most capticular to the most capticular to the purched and fermion of the most capticular managers, knows in the leading role, is a rather comely young woman, with plenty of voice. This voice is slightly affected by a track that place the substitution of the most capticular and the content of the

Possesses All the Good Qualities, To the Milter:

I bave read of "Elements's" resolution to meet another young man instead of her former lover owing to the fact that he flow former young man has failed to shew up for resones she mentioned. As I am a young man (German-American), twenty years of age and of Hebraw descent, and am fond lover of her sex and her religion, I take the liberty of writing this letter. I have no doubt but that "Eleanors" will find me a valuable companion, as I am of an agreeable disposition, possess all the good qualities of true manhood, and am for the present engaged as standards and the stan Mariem giris are as much at home in the water the as on land, and impromptu races, graceful diving and floating are features to repay one for an hour or two spent in looking on.

Bob Fullistion, the Old Curlosity Shop man, is gaining in float. I saw him on Nassau street the other day for the first time in a year, and hardly recognised him, so stout has he grown.

Perhaps laughing has something to do with it, for the always has a stock of amusing aneedotes on hand, and loves to hear a good story.

Col. Bob Ingersoll has a double in this cwy, the frequently diese at Delmonice, and I have seen grace as the anti-theologist's, but his features are excepted as the anti-theologist's, but his features are excepted by the country.

A Fatal Obstacle.

Dinwiddle—I wonder why young Dr. Pepsin finds it so difficult to work up a practice when some it is of the pound of the proung physicians are doing well. He graduated high in his class.

Hilland—That is true, but he finds it impossible to raise a beard—Pittaburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Why, of Course.

The Teacher—Now, who can tell me which travels the faster, heat or cold?

Johnnie Bright (promptly)—Heat, of course.

Nobody was more surprised than the Rosenfelds' business manager to learns.

Wilton Lackaye, it has now been definitely settled, will not go a-starring next season. He will remain which A. M. Palmer, and Swengall his way through the country. This is a wise move on lackaye's part, as he will mote go a-starring next season. He will not go a-starring next season. He wi fights with the police, ambulances rolled of with the wounded as on a battlefield, and the hospitals and police courts were kept busy yesterday.

President Roosevelt and Acting Chief Coulin are much exercised over the bad management of the reformed force on the occasion, and yesterday got together and determined to stop all such affairs of success.—Boston Globs.

In a suppose the only way to find out is dangerous or fatal.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Side with the Strikers.

The sweatshop evil comes right home to millionaires in broadcloth, as is evidenced in the fact that the most conservative journals are declaring the strike of the New York tailors to be altigother righteous, commendable and deserving of success.—Boston Globs.

Nobody was more surprised than the Rosentellos but where can I see her?

Taking Precautions.

Customer—Bring me some lobster mained and being one cucumbers.

Walter (bringing pen, ink and paper)—Please with every glad to help her to forget her trunt lever if she will help me to forget mer trunt lever if she will help me to forget my lost Eleators. She must be very like and yesterday. "After my long resihe said yesterday. "After my long resi-dence in America, I don't think that I could endure the very different methods of my native country."

Clara Morris will emerge from her temporary seclusion this season, and this time she will go through the country under the management of Jean Williams, the clever and energetic young man who was with Augustin Daly last season, in charge of Nethersole and the "Galety Girl." Miss Morris will open her season at the Fourteenth Street Pheatre with a repertoire. Her hubby, Mr. Harriott, will be a member of her company.

Manager Palmer has, strange to say, changed his mind again—something he rarely does. He was to have sailed for Europe last month, but he has now decided to postpone his eventful trip until September. There are those who don't believe that he will go at all, but that, of course, is absurd. The London field has been pretty well covered this season. Still novelties are always cropping up.

Tony Pastor has started on his road season. Monday night he devoted to the fun-lovers of Elizabeth, N. J., and Tuesday night he spent at the West End, Long Branch. Next week he will give two performances at Saratoga Mr. Pastor's Fourteenth street house will reopen a week from next Monday with John and James Russell and their company.

The shadows gloomed above my hopeless path

When little feet came pattering to the gate And life seemed lovelier for a little child!

HERE'S TO HIS EYE'NESS.

Stout Gentleman-Here, my lad, is penny; tell me if my boots require a

A College for Housewives. From "Good Housekeeping" it is learned that there is a college for houseyoung women may learn all the branches of domestic work, including cookery, needlework, laundry work and hous hold superintendence. The name of the college is appropriately St. Martha's. Only ten pupils are received at a time, in order that each may serve her turn as housekeeper, chambermaid, laun-dress, &c. As the course of instruction includes every household function, from building fires and cleaning lamps to giving dinner parties, the graduate is equally fitted for a housemaid or a house mistress.

Promenade Dress. The godet skirt in green crepon has a large design in black silk. The full sleeves and basqued bodice are of the same material; yest of green silk, shaded trimmings and black tie; large hat, seldom the woman you think you see. with crinkled edge, shot ribbon bow and pink roses.

Chocolate Puffs. Two ounces of chocolate, one-half pound of granulated sugar, whites of two eggs beaten to a froth, flavor with vanilla; drop on sugared paper and bake. A French Combination. The pretty combination of plain and striped goods of the same material is disport herself upon a bicycle. again coming into favor. A French costume of plain and striped organization has a deep square yoke of applique is excellent for brightening copper Renaissance, divided in the centre from is excellent for brightening copper kitchen utensils. It is especially the striped organdle, the rest of the blouse being made of the plain and confined by two bands of velvet, each ended by a little above. The skirt has a front of them every time.

Sunday Beer and Everyday Existence.

whose the fault? Mins. of course. Though never an inveterate whiskey drinker, the mild and soothing extract of the semulferous hop has gotten in its work. To-day at the age of thirty-nine, a man of good education, and endowed with all the necessary self-respect so far as position and association are concerned, here I am with nothing to show for my squandered substance. In my opinion, the Sunday beer this is one of the worst. If a man wants beer for his Sunday dinner, why, in the name of goodness, can't he buy it on Saturday? There is nothing to prevent his so doing if he so wishes. Further, during my experience of five years living in New York City, I have observed that most of the Sunday heer customers are the loafers and nums, who frequent the corners where there is a saloon on Sunday afternoons. and espectorate tobacco juice on the side-walks, and insult women. I am glad that Mr. Roosevelt is pursuing the course he is, and I

The Secret of Good Singing.

Sucker.

the striped goods bordered on either side by a band of Renaissance lace, the rest of the skirt being of the plain goods wives at Walthanstan. England, where the collar of the latter with large velvet rosettes on either side.

Ginger Drops. One-half cup of shortening, two tea-spoonfuls of baking powder, one teacup of brown sugar, half a cup of molasses, two eggs, one teaspoonful of ginger. Flour enough to make a batter so that it will drop from the spoon in drops as large as an egg. All New.

Stylish costumes of pale buff-colored linen duck, with small dots of black scattered over its surface, are made with full untrimmed skirts and Eton jackets, with fronts slightly tabbed. The jacket turns back with revers that are finished with five rows of the narrowest black velvet ribbon, which also borders the edge of the large marine collar and the wrists of the mutton-leg siceves. The yellow straw saller hat en suite is decorated with a band, and loops of wide black velvet ribbon and a cluster of field daisles of the "black-

One pint of veal cut in dice, six hard boiled eggs, cut fine; season to taste. One cup of cream or cook one spoon of butter with one of flour, and add slowly one pint of milk; pour over meat; heat

Pots, Pans and So Forth.

If any substance has remained at-ached to a utensil (and this, by the

The Wheel a Test of Character.

contended that the woman you see is Mounted upon her bleycle, most women have to tell the truth about themselves.

Copper Kitchen Utensils.

[This column is open to everybody who has a complaint to make, a privance to ventilate, te-formation to give, a subject of general interest to discuse or a public service to acknowledge, and who letters connet be printed.]

I have reached the age of thirty-nine years fifteen of them most of the time in steady employment, and nine years married to an estihome for which I pay rent instead of which I ought to have and should have had a home of To the Editor: my own free and clear of all encumbrance. I ah pleased say: God speed him in his work.

Roosevelt is pursuing to work.

AMERICAN.

editions of last week says he has an excellent base voice, but is utterly unable to carry a tune or sing in harmony. His is a very common he is to be congratulated, but if he is unable to sing in tune he had better give up all idea of becoming a singer. case If he has as he says, an unusual voice. becoming a singer. The defect is entirely in his ear, and not in his voice. He is "tone To the Editor: desf." and no amount of vocal training will I was standin remedy the defect. Very often men are good (Monday), when singers who possess poor voices, simply beAhearn Association, and with them a pcause they have a musical temperament and loafers and this on a piliaging expedit good ear. A man (or woman) with a poor voice and good expression is much more desira-ble than a man with a good voice and wretched interpretation. I have been told by prominent usicians and teachers that it is useless to try and make a singer of a man who is utterly GEORGE B. SEARS.

The Jack Pot, the Clock and the a couple of "friends" invited me to a game of poker at their house. I went, and we sat down to play, and agreed to stop at 12 o'clock. We played with varying success until about 11.20, when one of the "friends." whom I will call G. "opened a jack-pot." I stared, and so did the other "friend," F. G bet and I raised again, they did the same, and we all continued to do no for some time. At length the chips ran out, and as it was a friendly game we each trusted the other's word. After some time, as the amount was getting too large, I decided to call, but was raised at each end immediately, and they kept raising it until the amount got to be eyed Susan" variety. Veal Terrapin.

way, is generally the result of bad management or careless cooking) do not attempt to scour it off, but pour some water into the vessel and place it over the fire, when it will soon be possible to remove all the adhesive matter without scratching or injuring the pan.

Certain disgruntled philosophers have

One can distinguish at a glance the daring, wilful beauty from the timid, tender girl. The woman is reduced for the moment to the plane of a boy. whose good looks or lack of them, health, vigor of mind and body, are apparent. I will even go so far as to advise a man not to get married until he has seen the object of his choice bottom of cooking utensils that are often allowed to become quite black, on the strange principle, perhaps, that as an ornament of Strauss diamonds, one they have to be placed on the fire reband being at the waist and the other peatedly it is not necessary to clean betting any longer, and proposed that so long as I could not make them show their hands, that we divide the pot, in other words, calling that "pot" off. I thereupon claimed the game, but they would not consent, saying that as long as they did not show their hands I could not claim the stakes, and insisted that they being the owners of the house they could stop the game. The hands were subsequently shown and I had four eights, they having two pair each, but they would not allow me the game, claiming they had not "called." Should I not get the stakes? I have since found out that the method is a favorite one of theirs for blumng their "friends" suckers) out of the game, when they cannot afford to stay in it. They then divide the I ah pleased to note that my purpose am with nothing to show for my squanored substance. In my opinion, the Sunday beer question is the most miserable sort of drasted not. Of all the nonemaked questions of the day like the introduction of one in excess of requirement in the property of the second of the worst. If a man wants beer "Usonan," to some, at least, will seem to be "stubby" or "bobtalled" both as to infect Quartermaster R. G. Shaw Post, G. A. B.

The recent disaster at Cherry Hill was a ma occurrence for those people, who had, no deal lost the results (a home) of the savings of year Now, if the insurance companies will not insie wind storms, &c., in their policies, why, I think it would be a good idea to have the Sinte take the matter in hand, and add a tormade tax to each tax-payer's bill, to make good such lesses which do not occur very often, and therefore the extra amount to each tax-payer would be very small. If there should be no losses for a few years, the fund would grow, of course, and then for a few years it could be omitted until necessary again. Another plan would be for the State to make good such losses when they come, and then tax the people the following year.

A SUBURBAN TAX-PAYER. Our Side-Door Pinest. I was standing on Rutgers Square last might (Monday), when along comes a procession of the Ahearn Association, and with them a gang of am only one of a great many victims. I am surprised, and had I not been a victim I would doubt that such a state of affairs existed in this the Empire City. There on a public high-way a gang of from fity to one hundred high-waymen, going along the street at their laisure and as unconcernedly as if this was some fac-Western village pulling off watches and chains and snatching ladies' purses without any ens to molast or hinder them. I went to the Medican acreet police station and reported to the ser-geant. He said: "What can I do? I have only five detectives, and they are out." While at I write to ask your readers to decide what the station two more complaints came in seems to me to be a knotty point. Last evening stoten watches and chains. Just then a big a couple of "friends" invited me to a game of burly roundsman came in with a twelve-pear-old they kept raising it until the amount got to be ridiculous and beyond the bounds of any of us know what you did with every cent he gave yes; I wanted to call the game at 12 o'clock, but 'threw up' to you everything he gat yes to they would not have it, saying it could not be wear; left you with nothing to eat and nave stopped as long as they kept raising it. After spoke a pleasant word oven when he came here ounces. Take one teaspoonful in water before each meal. Also take one teaman of the Committee on Repairs and Supplies. He deciares himself in favor Willie won't play unless ne is allowed White Rosswelt was a talking on the antispoonful of pure sulphate of soda in a gobletful of hot water an hour before of giving all contracts for work to our to win, and yachtsmen don't play that own people instead of to outside con- way. And Parker was appliedding in approof breakfast every morning. tractors from other States and of make THE OLD PLACE. chance to work in other lines of duty Andrews ing it understood that New York labor So far as known there is no reason Please publish a good wash for inflamed eyes shall be employed. He is opposed, he why Mr. Olney, now Secretary of State, So he looked at living statues on a roof. You can make an excellent wash by Only a turty hollow, a moss-grown stone and a orted labor and insists that should not act vigorously with China. dissolving ten grains of horax in two While Rossevelt made his arguments about the brier.

A wandering, wantoning brier where the door I thanked God for the dying of the day. we should take care of our own people ounces of camphor water. This wash It is neither a trust nor a corporation. coppers' rights.
And Parker helped to give a mighty cheer. may be used several times a day. Buildings are constructed to stand Please tell me what to use for pains in the Young Andrews was a guaing at two guidy girls If they fall, there is criminal careless-Shoulders and arm. M F W.
Try chloroform liniment: use it with The skimming wing of the swallow, and a wind so that I railed at Fortune or at Pate, his own to whom he wishes to give massage several times a day. Kindle inform me where I can consult a United States Medical Directors. If R. M. D. In the library of the Academy of Medicine, 21 West Forty-third street.

Will you kindly advise me how to clean the stomach with a rubber tube? But Andrews smiked a eigereite and said he had You should consult a physician and have him teach you how to use the Try extract of malt and cod liver oil But Parker and poor Teldy are so rattled at his Take a tablespoonful or more with or immediately after each meal.

Will you kindly tell me what to do for hair? It is very thin and falling out rapidly > dram of tincture of cantharides, two ounce of giveerine and four ounces of bay rum once a day and rub it thor oughly into the scalp.

> > J. F. WHITMYER, M. D.

DRAMATIC NEWS AND NOTES. Enjoyable Revival of "Dorothy"--

Collier and Stephenson's amiable and "Dorothy," soothing comedy opera, "Dorothy," which for some quite inexplicable reason met with a somewhat cool recen tion when it was originally produced in this country, was revived last night at Standard Theatre-and most creditably and enjoyably revived. You see, years ago we had so much comic-opera matter to dip into that we could afford to turn up our nose at anything. Now, however, the stock has run dry. We ing up.

O, truest love, that comforts in our need! Is it not writ, "A little child shall lead?" -Frank L. Stanton, in Chicago Times-Herale

(From Ally Sloper.)

